HIRING A WEDDING CONSULTANT/COORDINATOR/PLANNER: HOW IT ALL WORKS

BY FRANK J. ANDONOPLAS, MWP, FRANK EVENT DESIGN

Many couples know that hiring a wedding consultant is the right thing for them from the very start. Other couples think this is an unnecessary expense and that they can do it all on their own. My philosophy is that if you trust your taxes to a professional, and your health to a professional, why would you not want to trust this once-in-a-lifetime event to a professional? Each planner does things their way, but here is how I have been providing services for my clients for 25 years.

Full Service Planning: I will plan and design the details of the wedding from start to finish.

Additionally, myself and my team are there at the wedding to direct the day’s events and coordinate everything that needs to happen and keep things on time.

Partial Planning: This level of service is pretty much the same as full-service, but this is if a couple should have their venue selected and then get to the point of “OK, now what are we do?”

“Day of “Coordination: This is the common term for wedding-day directions services. I am not a fan of calling it “day of” because it is so much more than just what it sounds like. I review all your contracts, meet with a couple before the wedding and put together the timeline. Then I pretty much take over all the final confirmations and last-minute details. I am there with a staff to direct the day’s events and take the stress away from the couple, their friends and family, making sure everything they have planned and selected happens correctly and on time. I also assist with any unexpected occurrences.

Hourly Consultations: I offer this service for couples who really want to do this on their own or cannot afford full or partial planning services. I am hired on an hourly basis to review your plans, give you advice on etiquette, guidance on what will work—and more importantly, what won’t work—as well as vendor recommendations. This is a great way to tap into my knowledge and expertise at a very minimal investment.

Once I know I am available for their date, I set up an initial interview and discuss their expectations. We talk about the event in detail. You will need to have an estimated guest count and wedding budget. From here, I know if their expectations are realistic. If they are not, one of two things must be done: either increase your budget or decrease your guest list so that you have more money to spend on the details that are a priority. This is where my expertise comes into play in assisting them on deciding on what’s most important and how to make the best of their wedding budget. This also gives us a chance to meet and interact and lets us both know if this is going to be a productive and enjoyable relationship.

It’s at this initial interview that I can come up with a cost for my services. Every wedding consultant charges a different way. Some charge by the hour, some charge a percentage of your budget. I charge a flat fee based on the amount of detail to your wedding. Since our weddings are different, the fee structure varies.

Once we have contracted, I set up an initial meeting. Here I determine the couple’s style by asking a series of interpersonal questions to each member of the couple. We also then talk about each facet of the wedding and the vendors that will be involved. With my 25 years of experience, I can easily fit vendors whose price and style work best with the couple’s budget and expectations. I check those vendors availability, then forward the information to the couple for their review. From here, we set up meetings with vendors they like the most. Keep in mind that every vendor that they choose, the couple contracts with each vendor directly. I, unlike other planners, do not subcontract any vendors.

This planning process can take several weeks or even months depending upon how much time we have before the big day. Many clients do not live in the Chicagoland area, so we arrange Facetime meetings and conference calls on a regular basis. I then guide the couple through each intricate detail, use my creative flair to add unique and personal touches and manage the whole event. When the big day arrives, my team and I are there to manage all the details of the day and keep things flowing according the agenda.

There are now dozens and dozens of wedding consultants out there. I highly recommend you research consultants fully before hiring and going into a contract. Make sure that you ask for references and check online reviews. See what professional credentials and affiliations they have. But most importantly, hire a consultant that you trust and feel comfortable with. This is vital. Beware of anything that seems too good to be true regarding price. I always recommend the old saying, “You get what you pay for.”

Just as every planner does things differently, each planner charges in a different way. The most common are hourly, percentage of budget or flat fee. I charge a flat fee so the client knows exactly the amount of the investment they are making, as well as the freedom call, email and meet with me as much as they need to.

Hiring a wedding consultant/coordinator/planner is not for everyone, but the benefits of having one involved in some capacity of your wedding planning is an insurance policy for you. It is such an immense benefit to the couples, giving them peace of mind and less stress during this very emotional time in their lives. This way, you can be a guest at your own wedding.

August: ONE homosexual magazine cover story headline reads “Homosexual Marriage.”

Illinois passes law that permits legal adoption of an adult provided the adult had lived in the petitioner’s home for two consecutive years. John Gregg Allerton’s oral history states that Robert Allerton was the first to adopt under the new law, when he adopted John under a decree issued by Judge Henry T. Dighton of Monticello, Piatt County.

1961
During a legislative vote on a new state criminal code, Illinois becomes the first U.S. state to remove its sodomy law from the statutes.

1968
December: The Reverend Troy Perry, two months after founding the gay Metropolitan Community Churches, performs what is believed to be the first public same-sex wedding ceremony in the U.S.

1970
May 18: Jack Baker and James Michael McConnell apply for a marriage license in Minneapolis. Hennepin County denies the request, and subsequent court challenges lead to U.S. Supreme Court dismissal of the case, based on “want of a substantial federal question.”

1975
March 27: The first same-sex marriage license is issued in Boulder, Colorado. Five more would follow before the courts shut them down. October 20: Two Chicago women are arrested applying for a marriage license in Cook County.

1980s
With the AIDS crisis striking, activists are fighting for their lives and the lives of those they love; there is not yet a big focus on marriage. However, there is a push in some countries, including Denmark and the Netherlands, for registered partnerships and similar laws.

1990
December: Three same-sex couples try to apply for a marriage license in Hawaii, sparking the modern U.S. movement for marriage equality.

1996
February: In a response to a questionnaire by Chicago’s Outlines newspaper (now Windy City Times), Illinois state Senate candidate Barack Obama says he supports same-sex marriage and would fight laws that try to ban it.

Chicago, IL 60603
Oak Park, the charming and progressive village that hugging Chicago to the west, offers the best of both worlds: Only 8 miles from Chicago’s Loop, it effortlessly blends the liveliness of urban settings with the welcoming sense of suburban communities. As the first village in Illinois to roll out a domestic partnership registry—serving as a model for other communities to develop their own—Oak Park has a proud history of inclusiveness. Plus, its marvelous architecture, historic spaces, and tree-lined brick roads offer a picture-perfect backdrop for your biggest day yet.

Venues

Home to Oak Park’s largest ballroom, the Nineteenth Century Club exudes unique charm, history, and character. An assortment of lounge and dining rooms on the first floor are perfect for smaller weddings, while the 280-capacity ballroom’s sprawling stage graciously accommodates bands for larger ceremonies or receptions.

Take your wedding to the rolling countryside without straying far from the city at the Cheney Mansion. Designed to resemble an English country home, this 12,000-square-foot jewel boasts spacious reception rooms and is surrounded by a 2.5-acre garden with tranquil ponds, colorful flowers and towering trees.

Let the intoxicating fragrance of tropical plants, towering palms and rich flora wash over your guests at the Oak Park Conservatory. Considered one of the area’s top historical sites, this hidden oasis has both indoor and outdoor gardens available for smaller weddings or cocktail receptions.

Considered one of the nation’s most distinguished examples of Prairie Style architecture, the Pleasant Home is a striking 30-room mansion that showcases 19th century craftsmanship with its ornate woodwork and vibrant art glass. Ceremony options include the elegant banquet hall, large front porch and library, while outdoor tents can be pitched in neighboring Mills Park.

Frank Lloyd Wright’s Unity Temple is a landmark structure that seats up to 350 people in its storied sanctuary, 175 for seated dinner and 225 for a cocktail party. This National Historic Landmark is fresh on the heels of a $25 million dollar restoration project, ensuring guests will be intoxicated by the renewed grandeur of its skylights, woodwork and art glass.

Whether it’s an event with 200 people or an intimate gathering with 20, the Carleton Hotel of Oak Park fuses classic elegance and contemporary style. Its cozy fireplaces, stained glass, crown moldings and red-wine drapery ooze romance, and the string lights stretching across the street outside are the glittering setting you always envisioned for wedding day photos.

Nested in 245 acres of woodlands in the Forest Preserves of Cook County, the Thatcher Woods Pavilion is a historic stone building hugging the Des Plaines River. The recently renovated facility, anchored by a traditional gas-lit fireplace, offers two meeting rooms and a prep-type kitchen.

Steps from the Metra train line in the heart of Riverside’s historic downtown is the Riverside Arts Center, a non-profit arts organization hosting unique exhibitions for more than 20 years. Its Freeark Gallery and outdoor Sculpture Garden can accommodate 100 guests, making it a popular spot for smaller wedding receptions and private community events.

Accommodations

The Write Inn, fittingly situated in the Frank Lloyd Wright Historic District, is a treasured landmark that fuses old world charm with modern features for a comfortable and memorable stay. Special antiques from the 1920s are showcased throughout, while visitors will relish its proximity both to Downtown Oak Park and the CTA line connected to Chicago’s downtown.

Gifts & Jewelry

A large selection of diamonds, colorful gemstones, gold, silver, and pearls can be found at Oak Park Jewelers. Since 1984, this family-operated mainstay has been providing fine jewelry, expert craftsmanship and unparalleled customer service. Custom designs are also offered, ensuring all personal needs and budgets will be satisfied.
What began as a little-known jeweler 12 years ago has evolved into Gem: A Jewelry Boutique, a widely respected, upscale shop in the heart of Oak Park. Aiming to inspire their customers, Gem pursues independent jewelers with a style all their own to curate its thoughtful and unique mix of jewelry and personal accessories.

Catering
As the catering arm of Cucina Paradiso, a modern Italian eatery in Oak Park, TwoMayToz Catering emphasizes putting the host's mind at ease. The wide spectrum of services, professional service staff and delectable flavors served guarantee your guests will enjoy the perfect meal.

America's original comfort food gets a distinct culinary stamp at Q-BBQ. Drawing inspiration from barbecue traditions across the country, this fast-casual joint offers authentic slow-cooked meats and made-from-scratch sides. Up to 1,000 guests can enjoy anything from the signature pulled pork to the infamous mac-Q-roni, topped with crumbled Cheez-It crackers.

Serving Italian-American favorites in bustling, industrial-chic spaces in Berwyn and Brookfield, Paisans Pizzeria offers catering services for events of all sizes and budgets. Popular entrees such as mango chicken and Nonna's meatballs can be mixed and matched with the eatery's acclaimed pizza, salads and appetizers for an entirely customized experience.

THROBBACK:
Chicago Tribune's first gay wedding announcement

On March 4, 2004, the Chicago Tribune published its very first same-sex wedding announcement for couple Lee Neubecker (right) and David Greer. They traveled to San Francisco to get married on February 19 of that year.

Last summer, more than 300 artists and designers from around the world answered a call to create Posters for Change: Tear, Paste, Protest: 50 Removable Posters, a collection of 50 tear-out posters for people who want to make their voices heard in a time of unprecedented uncertainty and apprehension.

Princeton Architectural Press selected posters that, in addition to being adjudged the best of those submitted, provide a representative sample of the entries received in terms of country of origin, area of concern, and graphic style. Subjects covered in the collection include animal rights, child labor, civil rights, the environment, gun control, healthcare, immigration, LGBTQ rights, mass incarceration, public arts, voting rights, and women’s rights.

Shepard Fairey, designer of the Barack Obama “Hope” poster, said of Posters for Change, “This collection of protest posters showcases bold and impactful graphic design with a message, which is always something I can stand behind.”

The book is available in March.
